“IN AN AGE of ECONOMIC globalization and outsourcing, corporate downsizing and layoffs, staff and benefit reductions, “cooked” books and corporate fraud, the poignant story of PIEDMONT Airlines is a shining example of what can be achieved in corporate America.”

PIEDMONT: FLIGHT of the PACEMAKER

is a readable and entertaining history in words and pictures of a Southern institution that became one of the nation's leading airlines. Drawing on exclusive access to Piedmont's files, the book traces the antecedents of the airline before World War II and documents its growth over the ensuing decades into an international carrier.

Author Frank Elliott carefully documents the airline's milestones in a fast-paced and intimate journalistic style based on research and stories shared by former employees. Published by the PIEDMONT AVIATION HISTORICAL SOCIETY, this compelling story is a must-have for anyone who has ever had a connection with Piedmont Airlines, and a must-read for aviation buffs, corporate managers, business students, and other aspiring pacemakers.

Piedmont: Flight of the Pacemaker is a four-color, hardcover 9 x 12-inch coffee table book. The entertaining narrative is studded with over 700 photographs of Piedmont Aviation staff, airplanes, company memorabilia and more. The book's cost is $52 and includes a DVD of a profile on the late Tom Davis produced by the NC BUSINESS HALL OF FAME. Proceeds will benefit PAHS and the aviation-related charitable giving of the TOM DAVIS FUND.
